CONTENTS

Sebastian McEvoy

Foreword i-viii

Colin Robertson

The Problem of Meaning in Multilingual EU Legal Texts 1-30

Maurizio Gotti

The Litigational ‘Colonisation’ of ADR Discourse 31-51

Martin Solly

Communicating with the Wider Audience: The case of a legal blog 52-71

Ross Charnock

Alternative Justifications and the Argument from Demystification in the English Law of Obligations 72-94

Maureen. L. Klos and Tamara. A. Klos

The Landlord’s Right to Consumer Protection 95-105

Eveline T. Feteris

Strategic Manoeuvring with Linguistic Arguments in Legal Decisions: A disputable literal reading of the law 106-125

H. José Plug

Obscurities in the Formulation of Legal Argumentation 126-142

Victor Ferry

The Dissociation of Notions as a Tool for Justification: A study on practical reasoning in common law decisions 143-155

Anne Richardson Oakes

Schools and Race in the Language of the Law: Precision or Meaningless Jargon? 156-179
International Journal of Law, Language & Discourse

Special Issue

Law and Linguistic Multiplicities

CHIEF EDITOR LE CHENG